REBORN.6 Game Strategy

The key to conquering Talisdam lies in the Elemental Legion!
To obtain the Elemental Legion, you must defeat the King Doragon hidden somewhere in the world and unlock the quests.
The King Doragon reigns supreme over the world… meaning they are likely at the very top of the world you can create in the environmental training.

Try advancing in this way!

To defeat the King Doragon, you must train your Legendz!
There are many ways to become stronger, but try some of the following methods!

Early Stage

もくひょう
Target HP: 1500
SupportLegendz
2 Earth-type

In the early stages, focus on increasing your Legends' HP.
First, look for the "Best environment " and grow your HP to around 1000 to 1500! Additionally, if you have two Earth-type Support Legendz, the number of crystals you gain after winning a battle will triple, which is advantageous! Use the crystals with the "Use" function to upgrade your parameters!

Mid-Stage

もくひょう
Target HP: 2500
SupportLegendz:
1 Fire-type, 1 Wind-type

Once you've upgraded your Skills and parameters to some extent, go after the King Doragon! To defeat a powerful King Doragon, it is crucial to have a Fire-type Support Legendz that doubles your attack power and a Wind-type Support Legendz that reduces incoming damage.
Including one Earth-type can be a good challenge, as you can quickly obtain powerful crystals.

Late Stage

もくひょう
Target HP: 3500
SupportLegendz:
It's up to you to decide!

Think about the attributes, abilities, Skills, and Support effects of the Legendz you've raised so far, and adapt to each quest!
For example, if it's the Scorching Quest, try setting a Wind- type Legendz as the leader, as they are strong against Fire-type enemies. Experiment with various strategies!

＊The mention of 'Wind-type' is directly from the original text.

Important Notes

Auto Power-Off

The Talisdam automatically powers off through its power-saving feature if unused for approximately 3 to 5 minutes. To turn it back on, simply press any button.

Regarding Ejecting

③ Once you have fully extended the Claw Cover, remove the Soul Doll.

Warning!

Do not slide the Reborn Switch or touch the Soul Doll while the LED is flashing or during battle, as this may corrupt the data.

Legendz Death

Each Legendz has a lifespan, and once they reach the end of their lifespan, they die and revert to crystals. Legendz may also die from starvation. When they die, all parameters revert to their original state, but customized moves and nicknames are retained.

To Have a Long Relationship with Your Legendz

- When you're not training, remove the Soul Doll from the Talisdam!
- Regularly check the parameter command to prevent hunger!

Legendz Sleep

Legendz will fall asleep at set times.
The sleeping time varies for each Legendz.
＊Legendz do not grow through environmental training while sleeping.

In the Following Situations

Resetting the Soul Doll
